

THE MOST MISUNDERSTOOD AND MISUSED
VERSES FROM SCRIPTURE - Part VII

Reference: Matthew 7:1-5

Pastor Larry Webb

One of the most often misunderstood and misused statements is found in the first verse of Matthew chapter seven where Jesus said, “Judge not, that you be not judged.”

Read Matthew 7:1 in its entire textual context to determine what Jesus actually said about judging.

ONE...never judging is _____.

This command from Jesus not to judge does not preclude all negative evaluations and assessments because that’s not possible. Judging is a necessary part of the human experience!

The Greek word translated “to judge” is “krino” and means to _____, examine, investigate, question, select, or choose.

Biblical judging is the same as discernment and God expects us to be discerning:

References: I Kings 3:9; Philippians 1:9,10a; I Thessalonians 5:21; Hebrews 5:14; I John 4:1, etc. (see screen)

TWO...Jesus is not telling us “not to judge” but he’s instructing us on “_____ not to judge”.
verses 2-5 (see screen)

References: Romans 2:1; Jeremiah 17:9, 10 (see screen)

The BIG IDEA of this entire passage (Matthew 7:1-5) is that we are not to be _____ in our judgment of someone else.

THREE...Jesus actually tells us _____.

Reference: John 7:24, “Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment.”

References: II Timothy 1:15; 2:16, 17; 3:8; 4:9, 10a; 4:14, 15; III John 9; Revelation 2:6 (see screen)

Reference: Matthew 7: 6, 15, 16 (see screen)
