

THE ONE ANOTHER'S - Part V
Reference: miscellaneous Scripture
Pastor Larry Webb

ONE... Receive one another.
Reference: Romans 15:7

TWO... Prefer one another.
Reference: Romans 12:10b

THREE... Admonish one another.
Reference: Romans 15:14

FOUR... Encourage one another.
Reference: Hebrews 3:13

FIVE... _____ one another.
Reference: I Thessalonians 5:11 (see screen)

Definition: Comfort is the _____ or _____ from grief, sadness and distress. Someone that comforts is someone that brings ease or consolation to someone in need.

Reference: II Corinthians 1:1-3; II Thessalonians 2:16-17 (see screen)

God communicates comfort to us through three basic avenues:

One is that God comforts us through _____.
Reference: I Thessalonians 4:18; Psalm 23:1-6; Psalm 119:49-50; Romans 15:14 (see screen)

Two is that God comforts us through His _____.
Reference: Acts 9:31

Different stages to different forms of grief:

- _____
- _____ release
- _____
- _____
- _____ and _____
- _____
- _____

- _____ to do _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Three is that God comforts us through _____.
Reference: II Corinthians 1:3-4 (see screen)

THE BIG IDEA: We are _____ to _____!

Reference: II Corinthians 7:5-7 (see screen)
Biblical historians believe that altogether Paul authored a total of four letters to the church at ancient Corinth, Greece. It seems that two of those letters were lost and so were never added to the New Testament cannon.
Letter Number One is _____.
Reference: I Corinthians 5:9 (see screen)
Letter Number Two is _____.
Letter Number Three is the _____ letter and is lost.
Reference: II Corinthians 2:4 and 7:8
Letter Number Four is _____.

Four practical suggestions on how to comfort someone:

Suggestion One is to be _____.

Suggestion Two is to be _____.

Suggestion Three is to be _____.

Suggestion Four is to be _____.